THURSDAYS and SATURDAYS, at $6 per annum-payable in advance.

Letter from Prince William.

[Correspondence of the Virginia Star.] Manassas, Va., Sept. 1st, 1870.—I had the pleasure of visiting Milford Mills, on Sunday last, and was pleased to find that the place had improved so much within the past year. "Millord" is situated on the stream of "Broad Run" one mile above where that stream is crossed by the O., & A. R. R. and is distant four miles from Manassas, and five from Gainsviile. Mr. John R. Hornbaker, the proprietor of the Mills, is a gentleman of northern birth who emigrated to Virginia about twenty years ago. After the close of the late war he purchased of Mr. William I. Weir, a tract of land containing the old Mill site (the mill having been destroyed during the war) and by perseverance and industry has erceted by his own architecture, one of the finest grist mills in this, or any of the adjoining counties. He is now engaged in building a fine saw mil and intends putting in a large circular saw, which will be quite a convenience to that neighborhood, as the nearest mill of that kind is the one at Manassas. I understood from Mr. H. that it is his intention to put into operation, as early as practicable, a spoke factory, also a sash and blind factory.

The delightful shade, together with the facilities for bathing, renders Milford one of the tinest summer resorts in Prince William, and is might be safely asserted that there is not a more healthy situation in this section of Vir-

Manassas is still improving; there have been creeted two new houses within the past month, one by Mr. Wallace Hisson, on Battle street, and one by Mr. R. W. Merchant on the corner of Main and North streets. Mr. Harvey Varnes, the proprietor of the Manassas Hotel, intends erecting a large brick hotel 40x60 on Railroad street, in the course of a few months, and has now a large number of the bricks on the ground; the bricks are of a superior quality, and were manufactured by Mr. Samuel Bowers, of Alexandria, Va., who has a large brick kiln about a half mile from our village.

A good deal of sickness prevails in this neighborhood at present, and I learn that the most dreadful of buman maladies, dyptheria, is raging to an arlarming extent in the lower edge of the county. R.

WILL OF THE LATE HON. JOHN P. KEN-NEDY, OF BALTIMORE. - The will of Hon. John P. Kennedy, which bears date October 25th, 1845, has been, says the Sun, fied in the Orphans' Court of this city. It gives all his property who is named sole executrix. (both being with outchildren.) Two codicils, executedJune, 1866, provide, with much detail, for the distribution of his property, only in the contingency of his wife dying before him, The estate is valued at about $150,000.

THE WILL. The will commences as follows: "I have reason to thank God for many bless ings; for kind friends, worthy kinsmen, pros perous and contented life; for a cheerful tem per, competence of worldly goods, a fair share of health, interrupted only by such alternations as have taught me the more to value it; for opportunities of public service, afforded me through the confidence of my fellow townsmen, in more than one honorable trust; and above all, for a home made dear to me by the affectionate and constant devotion of my wife, who has done everything in her power to render me happy; whose rare virtues of mind and heart have given the most complete success to her endeavors.

"I have striven so to order my life as to live always above the fear of death, and have sought that consummation in cultivating Christain faith and duty as sincerely, if not as diligently, as my infirmities would allow. * * All my property and estate of whatsoever description, real, personal and mixed, which I may possess at the date of my decease, I give to my wife Elizabeth, her heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, forever; and I request her, after she shall have enjoyed the same for her life, to distribute, either by will or gift, what may remain amor gst such of my relations as she may think most worthy her care and my remembrance; also by making gifts, in my name, of certain portions of my effects, in the manner which I may suggest to her from time to time. either orally or by memoranda, expressing my wish, but which I do not design to make a part of this my testament.

COMMISSIONER OF ACCOUNTS.-We would di rect the attention of all guardians, curators, and fiduciaries generally to the following ex tract from the Acts of Assembly. "The Judge of each court having jurisdiction of the prohate of wills and granting administration in the State, shall designate one of its commissioners in chancery, who shall be known as the com missioner of accounts, and who, in addition to his other duties, shall have a general supervision of all fiduciaries admitted to qualify in said court, and make all ex parte settlements of the accounts of such fiduciaries.

"Every personal representative, guardian, curator, or committee, shall, within four months after the date of the order conterring his authority, or if his authority was derived before the commencement of this act and he shall not before have made the return to the clerk required by the third section of chapter one hundred and thirty-two of the Code of eighteen hundred and sixty, within four months after such commencement, return to the said direct from Paris, the opening of which due hundred and thirty-two of the Code of eighcommissioner, in proper form, an inventory of | notice will be given. all the personal real estate which has come to his possession or knowledge, or which is under his mangagement or subject to his authority in his fiduciary character; and shall, within four months after any other such estate shall come to his possession or knowledge, return to the said commissioner a further inventory thereof."

THE CUIRASSIERS' LAST CHARGE. - McMahon had already lest the battle of Woerth .-"We must charge again; we must keep charging, mas entans," said the Duke, turning to the Colonel and the few around him. The Colonel, touching his hat, replied: "Marshal, in the state in which we are, to charge is to certain death." McMahon, with a slight McMahon, with a slight shrug of his shoulders, answered low yet audibly, "What matters, Colonei; but let us embrace each other first." Not another word. The Marshal waved his hand, the Colonel gave the command, and onward they thundered; once, then forming again for the second time; again, for the last. Out of that magnificent array there were but 105 men in the last charge; ninety seven went down wounded or killed, eight remained, and of those eight one tells the story.

BANKRUPTCY.
Congress having just amended the Bankrupt law so that nearly all parties can be discharged from their debts unobstructed by the fifty per cent clause, so called, another opportunity ofters to secure the benefits of this most effective and permanent measure of relief. The above-named will make bankrupt business a specialty; will procure discharges on the most moderate terms, and transact all business in that line at prices which cannot fail to be satisfactory. Being U. S. Commissioner, he will endeaver to visit the different counties on court days, and thus save parties the trouble and expense of several trips to Alexandria in beginning and proceeding with their cases. Discharges can be obtained here before Register Hill as promptly as in Richmond or elsewhere, and at much less expense to parties It may be added that the Bankrupt act, in connection with the Homestead exemption, which it is now believed will be secured to the bankrupt under the bankrupt law, is the only real relief now offered to parties struggling in the hopeless bondage of old debts. ORGANIC WEAKNESS. Immediately cured and Full Vigor Restored.

This distressing Affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgencies. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the natural powers are lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions weakened.—I Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability. Immediately cured and Full Vigor Restored. Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion. Constitutional Debility and Wasting of the Frame, Cough, Consumption, Decay and Death.

JOHNSTON, Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most actonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with a large in the head and ears when as lean. ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately. TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either busines, study, cociety or marriage. These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz: Weaknese of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspep. sis, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, e.c.

YOUNG MEN Who have injured themselves by a cettain practice, already described, a habit frequently learned from evil companions or as school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, rorders marriage impossible, and destroys both nind and body, should apple immediately. What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyment of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in pornicious habits. Such persons must, before contemplating MARRIAGE, Reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connucial happiness, Indeed, without these the jour-ney through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happi-ness of another is blighted with our own
